The former has the appearance of being twenty-five years of age, of a fair complexion, and auburn hair arranged in curls and decked with flowers. She is seen in nearly a front view, attired in a white satin robe and a brown fur tippet, standing with the left hand extended, and the right placed on her bodice. Her son, a boy of about five years old, is represented in the character of Cupid, standing by his mother, holding an arrow in his hand. A portion of a building and some sky form the background. This is a clear and beautiful production.

RUBENS.

- 924 THE BIRTH OF VENUS—oval

The beautiful goddess is represented alighting on the shore from the element that gave her birth, accompanied by nymphs, tritons, and a number of cupids, the latter playfully sporting in the air, bearing chaplets of flowers.

The surrounding border is decorated with Neptune and Amphitrite, Cupid and Psyche, sea nymphs, cupids, dolphins, vases, &c. This is a spirited and delightfully painted picture in grisaille, done for a design for a silver salver (most probably for Charles I.).

23 in. by 30 in.

See Smith's 'Catalogue Raisonné,' vol. 11, p. 250

RUBENS.

925 DANIEL IN THE DEN OF LIONS

The prophet is represented sitting naked in the middle of the den, his hands clasped, and his countenance directed upward with an expression of earnest prayer. Nine lions are prowling around him.

Engraved by Blooteling, Van der Leuw, and Lamb, and in mezzotint by J. Ward. There is also an etching of it by Street, extremely rare.

This is one of the few great pictures by Rubens which we know with certainty to have been entirely executed by his own hand. Rubens says this explicitly in an Italian letter to Sir Dudley Carleton, which Mr. Carpenter has printed in his 'Pictorial Notices,' p. 140.

This picture was presented by Sir Dudley Carleton to Charles I., and is inserted in the printed catalogue of his collection at page 87.

"No 14.

Done by Sir Peter Paul Rubens.	{	Item.—A piece of Daniel in the lions' den, with lions about him. Given by the deceased Lord Dorchester to the king, so big as the life, in a black gilded frame."
